Looking for family support that works?

Parenting in a new country brings unique challenges that can leave families feeling isolated and overwhelmed by unfamiliar systems and expectations.

At Mosaic Multicultural Connections, we believe all children deserve a good start through proper parent support. We recognise every family's needs are different. We provide professional guidance and research-backed programs that help you build confidence and create the strong, connected family life you want. All our services are free and available in multiple languages.

 Serving: Central Coast, Newcastle and Lake Macquarie

Our Family Support Programs Include:

Group workshops: Evidence-based parenting program like Circle of Security, Bringing up Great Kids, Blackbox Parenting, and 123 Magic, aimed at helping you understand your child's needs and strengthen your relationship.

Individual support: We can support you with your family challenges and goals with culturally competent family workers who will listen and understand your situation.

Community Services Navigation: We can assist you to access specialist services in the broader community e.g. health services, government support, housing, and community programs.
